

Pondling Monologue Challenge - Week 13 – “Into the Woods”.

Kids aged 7 – 12

Narnia – The Lion, the witch and the wardrobe.

Lucy finds her siblings after discovering a magical world inside an old wardrobe.

Peter, Susan, did you worry about us? We've been gone for hours - we were in the wardrobe!! You've got to come with Edmund and me - there's a country through the wardrobe!! Oh isn't it a wonderful place Edmund?! I met a fawn who was supposed to kidnap me but he didn't – we became friends instead. Oh and there's also a terrible white witch. Edmund did you hear anything about her – she turns people into stone. Edmund why aren't you talking? Tell them about what we saw!

Teens aged 13 - 16

Pretty Little Liars

Spencer talks to a friend about dealing with her friend's disappearance.

I fell down. In the woods, when I was running. I fell down and I looked at the ground, my hand, my shirt sleeve, the little button on my sleeve, some dirt, an acorn and I said to myself - ok - if this is the last thing you ever see I can handle that. I'm done. I've had enough. But it wasn't it the last thing that I saw. I just kept going. How do you keep going when the worst thing has happened? What do you have to change inside to survive? Who do you have to become?
