WONDER

Auggie looks different to other kids and they tease him about it. He is really fed up of being treated like this. Here he tells his sister what happened in school today when he heard someone he thought was his friend talk about him behind his back.

Go away. It's none of your business what happened. (Pause) I heard Jack talk about me behind my back. He said he'd hate it if he looked like me. There are no nice kids there. I wish I'd never gone to school in the first place. I hate it. Bad days?? Do people avoid touching you? When a person accidentally touches you do they call it the plague? Jack is all I had so don't compare your bad days to mine ok?!

WONDER

Via tried to find out what upset her little brother Auggie at school today and shares that she has been having a tough time also.

Auggie I'm sorry but you're not the only one who has bad days. Did you notice that Miranda doesn't come around anymore? Yeah, she went away to camp this summer and now she doesn't like me anymore. Because school sucks and people change. So if you wanna be a normal kid Auggie then those are the rules. So.....lets go trick or treating. Because right now – we're each other's best friends. So come on – I'll let you have all my Halloween sweets??
